

MyDay is a modular system for displaying multiple types of useful information within a small area, eliminating clutter and confusion.

Horizontal Series - Overview

MyDay is a modular system for displaying multiple types of information within a small area, eliminating clutter and confusion. It is a focal point, incorporating a high-quality blend of form and function.

Displays may be removed and changed or replaced with a unique lift-and-pull technique. Should a display become damaged or if a change is desired, the update is fast and easy.

Although initially designed for healthcare environments, MyDay provides ideal display solutions for corporate, education and government facilities as well.
